Food from the Beginning

Food is a sensory experience; explore all its properties from the ground up. Grab a basket, a duck whistle, and a fishing pole and explore Mother Nature's grocery store; delve into the fine art of food appreciation; enjoy the cozy home environment of Café Dining; and discover the simple secrets of organic food production. Finally, give back to the earth with a heave-ho and some energetic Pumpkin Chunkin'. Bon Appetit!

International Cultural Buffet

International customs speak a whole different language. Learn about traditions from around the world. Enjoy Danish pastries and Floorball from icy Scandinavia; sample folk tales, delightfully aromatic foods, and the floral art of ceramic tiles from the Middle East; and explore the game of cinco marias, crafts, La Gigantona, and other deeply rooted traditions from Central/South America. Ready, set...explore!

NC, Our State, Our Food

Enjoy spring, local style. Take a dip into our NC Coastal Plains with fresh seafood and shag dancing; race our miniature rafts and cheer on our hometown teams in the Piedmont; then relax and breathe in the sweet smells of Mountain comfort food while conquering the roads of Tail of the Dragon. Ya'll come back now!

The Melting Pot

It's a geographical smorgasbord! Hit New York's busy streets, bright lights, and urban culture for a bite of the Big Apple. Grab the Mesquite and fire up the smoker for a slab of the Midwest. Stomp berries, live off the land, and become one with our environment during a stretch out on the Pacific coast. Happy trails!
